Article One — Name of Organization

The name of this organization shall be the Central Arkansas Fermenters. It shall be herein after referred to as the CAF in all instances both public and private.

Article Two — Purpose and Goals

1. CAF will operate as a not-for-profit organization, in accordance with all applicable state and federal regulations.
2. The mission of CAF is to provide education to enhance the awareness for the understanding of the art, science, and craft underlying the at-home brewing of beer, ciders, wines, as well as other fermented beverages throughout the Central Arkansas region, using that craft to benefit other charitable organizations in the area.
3. The objectives of CAF are as follows:
  - a. To provide educational activities that share information on brewing and fermenting techniques, based upon both professional and scientific knowledge as well as shared knowledge and experience;
  - b. To make charitable contributions to local advocacy and service agencies whenever feasible, through events, competitions, and in-kind donations.
  - c. To engage in and subsidize social activities designed to foster the foregoing purposes of the organization as limited by the laws. In furtherance of the objectives, and in accordance with the powers conferred by its Certificate of Incorporation, the CAF may collect membership dues, admission fees, gratuities, and bequests; may buy or otherwise acquire, sell, or otherwise dispose of, and mortgage or otherwise hypothecate real, personal, and mixed property of all kinds; and may, in general, exercise all the powers granted by corporate law in the State of Arkansas.
  - d. To promote the hobby of at-home brewing of beer, ciders, wines, and other fermented beverages; and
  - e. To promote the responsible consumption of alcoholic beverages.

Article Three — Fairness

No set of Bylaws can cover all circumstances. In the event of an issue arising which is not covered in these Bylaws, the issue will be decided upon on the basis of fairness, the good of The Central Arkansas Fermenters, and common sense.
